VOLUME XXVI.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1890.

NUMBER 16.

TO THE PEOPLE!

We this week received a Car Load of New Dry Goods and Notions--More goods than ever came to our store at any one time before. They are Elegant and Cheap. Understand, they must be sold in about six weeks or two months, at the longest, for then our new store room will be ready for us. Well, in order to do this, we must throw the knife into the profits and show you that mean--viz.: to unload these goods. A good thing for our customers, sure, to get Nice, New, Clean Goods, at late in the season prices, but such is the case. Below we will give you a little idea of just how the thing is going to be done:

DRESS GOODS.

KING & PROUD.
It will surprise the public to read that there is a Missouri law making it the duty of grand juries to investigate the assessor's lists. The object of the law is to punish perjury and tax dodgers. The law is in force, and the next grand jury will be called on to review the June assessment. If it does not act on the information it receives, the criminal courts will have to work night and day until far into the winter--St. Louis Chronicle.
